

Common Acids

The pH levels of acids can be negative, such as superacids which are less than -12 pH

Common Bases

Bases penetrate tissue more rapidly than most acids and generally cause more severe burns

Chemical Burns

Chemical reactions take place as long as chemical is in contact with body tissue.
Cleansing the site is the top priority.

Different chemical can have other, non-burn related effects.
Seek professional medical attention.

